3rd Grade Vocabulary List

Teachers, challenge students to write sentences containing one vocabulary word and one word that contains at least one dice word. Dice words are created by rolling the (white) consonant and vowel dice and creating a word that contains at least one letter from each die. See examples below.

When students seem to be comfortable with creating dice words, roll the (black) number die and create the number of dice words dictated by the number rolled.

1. Ability: quality of being able
2. Absorb: to take in and make part of
3. Accuse: to charge with an offense
4. Act: to perform by action
5. Active: causing or involving an action or change

Grammar Punk Sentence: C A | My stomach gets very active right before lunch.

6. Actual: really existing
7. Adopt: to take as one's own child
8. Advantage: superiority of position
9. Advice: recommendation with regard to a course of action
10. Ambition: eager desire for success or power
11. Arrange: to put in order
12. Arctic: relating to the North Pole

Grammar Punk Sentence: R I | Our classroom is so cold it feels practically arctic.

13. Average: being about midway between extremes
14. Avoid: to keep away from
15. Bold: courageous, adventurous

Grammar Punk Sentence: M A | It was very bold of Mark to raise his hand in math class.

16. Border: edge, margin, boundary
17. Cable: a very strong rope, wire, or chain
18. Capture: to take captive
19. Chill: a feeling of coldness
20. Clever: showing skill or resourcefulness

Grammar Punk Sentence: C E | My art teacher is very clever with clay.

21. Climate: average weather conditions in a place or region
